

The staff spotlight is shining on David Karabut! David is a field marketing representative with High Stakes Management and has been part of the team for just over a month.

Born in Ukraine, he moved to Seattle at a young age, and Kansas City became his home nine years ago. David did not have a sales background prior to employment with HSM. However, he was intrigued in the position because he wanted to gain experience and confidence working with customers.

In the short time he's been with the company, David has realized that his ultimate goal of creating and sustaining financial freedom is easily achievable. "I'm shooting for the sky here," he commented.

David was chosen because he is a valuable asset to the HSM team. He's consistently reliable and hard working, always asking questions and applying feedback. David is pushing for management within our company.

Congratulations, and best of luck to you, David!
